SUIVEZ VOS RÊVES

I'm Fabrice, 43 years old, passionate about photography, as well as adventures and nature since many years. Today I fully enjoy my passions while I discover wonderful destinations in Switzerland and Europe thanks to my converted van. I love being in nature, exploring amazing places and especially sharing them with my different communities on social networks and on my website. Offering beautiful images to those who do not have the chance to go there whilst spreading the desire to others to discover these incredible locations.

A person is silhouetted against a bright, cloudy sky while standing on a rocky mountain ridge. In the background, a tall, thin structure, possibly a tower or monument, stands on a distant peak. The foreground is dominated by large, craggy rocks, and the middle ground is filled with dense evergreen forests. The overall scene is a dramatic landscape photograph.

You can't change
people, you know. You can only show them a path, and then make
them want to take it.
